

“Breast cancer is a part of my story and that is why I am passionate about raising awareness of programs in our community for those who have or will be diagnosed. United in Pink provided services that no other organization could. There were programs and socials not just for me, but for my husband and my children – that’s important because breast cancer didn’t just affect me, it affected everyone who loves me and everyone I love.”

ABOUT US

United in Pink was founded in Macon, Georgia in 2007 with the mission of giving support to families affected by a breast cancer diagnosis.

While there are many organizations providing preventive care and research for breast cancer, there is no other organization in Central Georgia providing continuum survivorship care for the survivor, their spouse and their children. United in Pink is funded solely by private donations, fundraisers and grants. Through the generosity of our donors, we are able to provide all of our offerings at NO charge.

CONTACT US

The breast cancer journey consists of many different stages and involves not only the patient but also their family. If you, or someone you love, have been diagnosed with breast cancer – please contact us.
